COMPLAINT

Come the Plaintiffs, John C. McDougall and Carol B. McDougall, and for their cause of action herein, complain and allege as follows:

1. Plaintiffs, John C. McDougall and Carol B McDougall, are residents of the Commonwealth of Kentucky, residing in Henderson County, Kentucky, at 9641 State Route 1078 North, Henderson, Kentucky 42420.
2. Defendant, Charles W. Hobbs, is a resident of Vanderburgh County and the State of Indiana residing at 1501 Sweetser Avenue, Evansville, Indiana, 47714.
3. On March 29, 2019, Plaintiffs were driving their vehicle in a westerly direction along Bellemeade Avenue, located in the city of Evansville, Indiana, and approaching its intersection with Lodge Avenue.

4. At or about the same time, the Defendant was driving his vehicle in a southerly direction along Lodge Avenue and approaching its intersection with Bellemeade Avenue. Traffic traveling in this direction is subject to a stop sign at the intersection of Lodge Avenue with Bellemeade Avenue.

5. As Plaintiffs' vehicle entered said intersection, Defendant's vehicle negligently entered the intersection without stopping or slowing down and collided with Plaintiffs' vehicle striking it in the passenger side door and sending the Plaintiffs' vehicle hurdling across all lanes of traffic and ultimately coming to rest only after slamming into a tree located in a yard on the eastbound side of Bellemeade Avenue.

6. Defendant carelessly and negligently entered the intersection at a reckless and excessive rate of speed and negligently failed to stop his vehicle as he approached the intersection at Bellemeade Avenue.

7. As a direct and proximate result of the negligence of Charles W. Hobbs, Plaintiffs' have sustained bodily injury with that of Mrs. McDougall being the most severe; have incurred and may continue to incur medical bills and expenses; and have suffered and will continue to suffer pain, suffering, mental anguish, inconvenience and loss of consortium.

8. As a direct and proximate result of the Defendant's aforesaid careless and negligent acts and omissions, the Plaintiffs have suffered and will in the future suffer mental and physical pain and anguish, and severe temporary and permanent physical and functional limitations, all for which they are entitled to a judgment against the Defendant.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiffs, John C. McDougall and Carol B. McDougall, demand relief against Defendant as follows:

1. Judgment for compensatory damages in such amount as determined by jury at trial and reasonably calculated to compensate Plaintiffs for their damages;
2. Interest on any amount to which they may be adjudicated to be entitled to accrue from the date of the filing of this action until paid;
3. Their costs herein expended;
4. Attorneys fees;
5. Trial by jury; and
6. Any and all other appropriate relief to which they may appear to be justly entitled.

4. On March 29, 2019, Plaintiffs were driving their vehicle in a westerly direction along Bellemeade Avenue, located in the city of Evansville, Indiana, and approaching its intersection with Lodge Avenue.

5. At or about the same time, Mr. Hobbs was driving his vehicle in a southerly direction along Lodge Avenue and approaching its intersection with Bellemeade Avenue. Traffic traveling in this direction is subject to a stop sign at the intersection of Lodge Avenue with Bellemeade Avenue.

6. As Plaintiffs' vehicle entered said intersection, Mr. Hobbs's vehicle negligently entered the intersection without stopping or slowing down and collided with Plaintiffs' vehicle striking it in the passenger side door and sending the Plaintiffs' vehicle hurdling across all lanes of traffic and ultimately coming to rest only after slamming into a tree located in a yard on the eastbound side of Bellemeade Avenue.

7. Mr. Hobbs carelessly and negligently entered the intersection at a reckless and excessive rate of speed and negligently failed to stop his vehicle as he approached the intersection at Bellemeade Avenue.

9. As a direct and proximate result of the Mr. Hobbs's aforesaid careless and negligent acts and omissions, the Plaintiffs have suffered and will in the future suffer mental and physical pain and anguish, and severe temporary and permanent physical and functional limitations, all for which they are entitled to a judgment against Mr. Hobbs.

10. The Defendant, Ragle, Inc., has been joined as a defendant herein due construction work it was performing at the time of the herein described collision on or near Lodge Avenue and the signage it erected in connection with that work, the negligent performance and/or placement of which may have been a contributing factor or cause resulting in the aforesaid collision.

11. To the extent Ragle is determined to have been negligent in the course of its construction work and/or placement of signage related thereto, and such negligence is determined to have been a contributing factor to the herein described collision and the injuries suffered by the Plaintiffs, Plaintiffs are entitled to judgment therefore against Ragle.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiffs, John C. McDougall and Carol B. McDougall, demand relief against the Defendants as follows:

1. Judgment for compensatory damages in such amount as determined by jury at trial and reasonably calculated to compensate Plaintiffs for their damages;

2. Interest on any amount to which they may be adjudicated to be entitled to accrue from the date of the filing of this action until paid;
3. Their costs herein expended;
4. Attorneys fees;
5. Trial by jury; and
6. Any and all other appropriate relief to which they may appear to be justly entitled.

ORDER GRANTING LEAVE TO AMEND COMPLAINT

This matter having come before the court on Motion of the Plaintiffs, John C. McDougall and Carol B. McDougall, for leave to amend their Complaint filed herein on March 19, 2021;

It appears to the court, on reading Plaintiff's aforesaid Motion, as well as Plaintiffs' proposed Amended Complaint annexed thereto, that joining Ragle, Inc. as an additional party Defendant to this action arises out of the conduct, transaction or occurrence set forth in the original complaint; that Ragle, Inc. received notice of the lawsuit within 120 days of commencement of this action; and within that same time period, Ragle, Inc. must have known, or should have known that they could be named as a defendant in this action.

It further appears to the court that after reading the Motion and hearing the respective arguments of counsel thereon, the court is of the opinion, that justice requires that leave to amend be granted. Therefore,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED AND ADJUDGED that the Plaintiffs, John C. McDougall and Carol B. McDougall, be granted leave to file their Amended Complaint.

SO ORDERED, this the 23rd day of July, 2021.
